

Focus on the Fours

News and Notes from Mrs. Dudley's Classroom

Week of December 10, 2018

Merry Christmas

Dear Parents,

It is hard to believe this is the last week we will have classes in 2018. It has been a pleasure teaching your children and I am looking forward to starting 2019 with them!

They have been practicing their songs and instruments with Mrs. Flakus for the parties. Please join us at 11:30 for the performance. The children will then exchange the wrapped books before we share the yummy goodies you are bringing.

Friday Kat's mom will be sharing her vocal talents with us. We will also walk to the Howard Administration building to look at the lovely holiday decorations in the lobby. (If it isn't raining!) Library books must be returned by Friday.

When we return in January I will be asking you to sign up for a time to meet with me. It will be a time we can discuss your future plans after WLPS and your child's kindergarten readiness.

I wish you and your family a wonderful winter vacation. See you next year!

Sincerely,
Michale Dudley and Mrs. Flakus

Thank you for bringing in a wrapped book to exchange at our party. If you have not sent one in yet, PLEASE send them in Monday or Tuesday. This will help me ensure that everyone has a book to exchange.

ALL JU LIBRARY
BOOKS
ARE DUE FRIDAY!
Thank you!
